CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – Three young men are being honored for saving a man who had a heart attack.

They weren't trained first responders, but brave teens willing to go above and beyond to save someone.

After stepping up when it mattered the most, the three were honored Thursday, May 9, by their middle school.

Daniel Bomar, Legend Washington and Anthony Allen are three Algonquin Middle School students who are being called heroes after saving the life of a man who was having a heart attack.
